

WHAT COMMUNITY TOOL BOX USERS ARE SAYING

“ I’m using the Tool Box in all areas of community building and development. It’s so awesome to have this much information in one place! Community Tool Box is a blessing! Mahalo (thank you) :-) ”

*Puni Kekauoha, Community health worker,
Honolulu, Hawaii*

“ The Community Tool Box is a unique and indispensable resource for anyone committed to social change. Its vast open-source network of materials provides much-needed support for grassroots community organizing in local and global contexts. ”

*Simran Sethi,
Award-winning journalist, Top-10 Eco Hero,
Ford Foundation Poynter Institute Fellow*

“ It is an absolutely incredible resource. The most comprehensive resource I have found for skill and knowledge based information for our field. ”

Laurie Call, Consultant in substance abuse prevention, Divernon, Illinois

“ The Community Tool Box proved over and over again that it is a great resource for both teaching and conducting community-based programs. I refer my students to the Community Tool Box as the first choice for resources relevant to our work. ”

Ghazi Kayali, Instructor at the Faculty of Health Science of the University of Balamand, Lebanon

“ I have used this toolbox over many years and find it invaluable. Where else can you get this information in such a user-friendly format and for free? I would like to thank you for the hard work that must go into designing these pages and for all your help over the years. This really is a gift to us workers in the field. ”

Gareth Thomas, Manager of Community Development Programme, Cardiff University, Wales

“ “I wanted to say “THANKS” for the incredible website with so many terrific resources for communities to access. Your website not only reminds me to slow down, back-up and assess accurately what actually constitutes my community, it provides excellent guides on how to do that. The Community Tool Box is fantastic! ”

Kathi J. Bivens, Hendersonville, North Carolina

“ I am constantly referring my Leadership group to this site as a resource for what they are doing in their communities and for their KIDS COUNT Leader Projects. Every time I go to this site I am amazed what is offered. I always find something new. I have never found another site to equal this one as an available usable resource for positive community change. ”

*Ann Salazar,
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma*

“ As a guide for my work plan, I find it invaluable. Thanks for the initiative and the focused presentations. ”

*Freda Nkuutu, Community health worker,
Kampala, Uganda*

“ I use it as a quick reference / reminder for the many things once learned, worked with, or seen but slightly forgotten. I also use it to get additional practical ideas for tackling all kind of communication and community development related issues. Thank you for making this toolbox so accessible and available to all! ”

*Rolf Luyendijk, International Development Worker,
The Netherlands*

“ Ever since I found the site, I have been able to see issues that were actually hindering my progress and am now able to focus on the bigger picture and not on challenges. The site is very helpful when it comes to capacity-building, the basics. ”

*Thembile Mohlonyane, NGO working with the poor,
Pretoria (Tshwane), South Africa*

“ I come back to it year after year as a refresher course on the fundamentals of neighborhood advocacy and community activism. ”

*Chris Jones,
Tulsa, Oklahoma*

HELP US SHARE AND EXPAND THIS RESOURCE

Please use the Community Tool Box and share it with others.

To explore our products and services, or ways that we might meet your needs, we invite you to contact us.

By Email: toolbox@ku.edu

By Phone: 866.770.8162

STAY CONNECTED

 facebook.com/communitytoolbox

 @CToolBox

CONTACT US

The Community Tool Box is a public service of ...

Work Group for Community Health and Development, University of Kansas
A World Health Organization Collaborating Centre
1000 Sunnyside Avenue, Room 4082
Lawrence, Kansas 66045-7555
<http://communityhealth.ku.edu>

Visit us at <http://ctb.ku.edu>